should not mention those rumors, if something similar had not been announced three years ago. I quote the reports without guarantying their truth. 'Syrla has been ceded to M. Rothschild for 500 millions of francs, it is not yet known whether he assumes the title of King. It is not yet known whether he assumes the title of King or Pacha; it is certain that he proposes to rebuild Jerusalem and the Temple of Sciomon; there are to be chapels for all religions, a line of steamers from Beyrout to Marsellles, and a railway from Alexandria to Constanthople. The new states of M. Rothachlid abound in fron ore and forests of valuable timber. It is said that M. Hon. Daniel Webster has replied to Mr. Case's invitation to deliver the Address before the State Board of Agriculture. He expresses a strong desire to visit Ohio and witness the many improvements since he was last there; and adds, that unless unavoidable circumstances prevent, he will be in Cleveland curing the State Fair. Mr. Webster's engagements will render it impossible for him to del ver the official, formal address before the Board; but, if present, he will speak to the people on Agricultural topics.

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW" for April. (L. Scott & Co.) An article in this number on 'Investments for the Working Classes," has some valuable suggestions on the great problem of the day, namely, the relations of Labor and Capital. While dis claiming the principles of Christian Socialism, and falling back on the dogmas of Political Economy, the writer has not been able to escape the influence of the Socialist ideas which have been so urgently pressed on the attention of thinking men. Among other plans which he tavorably notices, is the union of workingmen and capitalists in joint-stock companies,-a plan, he maintains, in which the bitter controversy between capital and labor, as to the division of their joint earnings, would receive the only satisfactory solution of which it is capable, by combining the two controversialists in one actual experiment together.-Squier's "Nicaregua" is the subject of a short article, and is well spoken of. The week closed last night in finely cool and pleasant weather, of the genuine summer stamp. Thursday's heat and Fridays coolness make an average of most enjoyable temperature.

BRACKETT'S STATUE .- We are glad to learn that an effort is making to procure this beautiful work for some of our public institutions. The exhibitien will close in a few days, but while it has remained open all lovers of art in the City have been to pay their homage. We have constantly to deplore the poverty of our cities in fine works of art accessible to the public. Greenough's Statue of Washington will begin to remove this complaint from New-York, and one of the fine general benefits of exhibitions like that of Brackett's Group, will be the ameliorating influence they exercise upon the usual hard indifference of the public to subjects of

THOMAS F. MEAGHER AND THE COM-MON COUNCIL .- On Monday, the Common Council will commence the June Session, and probably the first business on hand will be the proposed reception of Thomas F. Mesgher. We presume no serious objection will be made to a handsome appropriation for this object; indeed, after the liberal expenditures on the arrival of Kossuth and other exiles of renown, it is hardly possible that any Alderman can refuse the same cour tesies to the eloquent champion of Irish freedom, who has so happily arrived among us. "The City Fathers cannot make so invidious a distinction now; and the plea of economy-which would sound strangely indeed from the portals of the tea-room-will be a sorry excuse for lack of patriotism. The military, firemen and civic societies are all ready and anxious to give Mr. Meagher such a reception as his genius and patriotism entitle him to, and the slow-coach of the City Hall must hurry up, or the people will take the affair into their own hands altogether. A cordial and magnificent reception is a fixed fact, whether the City Government participate or not, and the somer it is arranged the bet-

THE MEAGUER DEMONSTRATION .- The preparations for this event still go bravely on, and the excitement among all classes of Irishmen, as well as other lovers of patriotism, is continually increasing. Last evening the Convention of Civic Societies of this City, Brooklyn, Williamsburgh, Astoria and Finshing again assembled at Montgomery Hall, and in addition to the Delegates already noticed, Stephen O'Hara of the L. U. B. S., Mersrs, Huestis and F. B. Redmond of the Ship Sawyers' Society of New-York and Brooklyn, and Mr. O'Malley of the Industrial Congress, presented their credentials.

After the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, the report of the three Delegates to the Irish Directory was presented by the Chairman, Mr. Bell, who said that the Committee waited on that body at the Astor House and saw Judge O'Connor, He (Mr. Bell) told him that as there had been an understanding at the meeting of the Convention last night, that some Societies had represented themselves to the Directory, he wished to know if that was the fact The Judge said that one society and three clubs, namely-The Mitchell Guard (Independent) Capt, Thomas Mul caby, the Napper Tandy Light Artillery, Capt. J. Fry. the Montgomery Barricade Club, and the shipwrights of New-York had represented themselves, and that the Social Turnverein (German Gymnastics) stated their wish to take part in any procession which will be prepared for the illustrious Irish patriot, and requested an answer to be directed to their Secretary, S. Kaufman, No. 24 Duanc-st. Mr. O'Conner advised them to come to this Convention. He also expressed his desire that all would work harmonicusly in the common cause. The report was accepted. Capt. Kerrigan was called on to tell what the military were about to do, when he said that the officers would hold a meeting on Monday night to

Mr. McGrath said that a delegation from Albany had arrived in the city, for the purpose of inviting Mr. Meagher up there, and also to represent a society belonging to that place, in the procession that will take place in New-York. Teey had not as yet made their appearance, and he would move that, in accordance with the wishes of the Directory, an advertisement be published, announcing that such delegates should announce themselves to the Convention at its next sitting, and also that a ballot for position in the line will be gone into on Tue day night. In conclusion, the speaker suggested to the Directory that they ought to wait on the Mayor for the purpose of convening a public meeting of the citizens friendly to this object, at the Tabernacle, or some other place that may be deemed proper, as there were many men in the community, not members of any society, such as merchante, shopkeepers, mechanics and traders, who would willingly advance subscriptions to carry out the demonstrations, with the same eclat as that of the O'Connell procession some years ago, in which Governor Seware and many pe sons standing high in society took a part

The resolutions were finally adopted, after some few remarks from Mr. O'Malley, of the Industrial Congress, and some other gentlemen, relative to the manner in which the Common Council should be accosted relative to the subject at the Conference to be held on Monday afternoon. The meeting adjourned.

In another part of the building, a number of Grocors Cartmen, and other citizens, were organized into a preliminary meeting, for the purpose of taking part in the reception of Mr. Meagher, in which Capt. Kerrigan pre sided, and Mr. R. Walsh acted as Secretary. The object was, that every man who owned a horse, or was able to procure one, should form a portion of the procession, and that each person present should induce his friends to do so. The second meeting will take place on Tuesday right, when officers will be elected, and other bussiness transacted.

A meeting of the New-York Operative Saipwrights was also held last night, and efforts entered into to take part in the reception.

The T. F. Meagher Club held a meeting at Hermitage Hall, in Houston-st., and selected a Delegate to the Civic Convention; but as the Company is partly military, some further discussion will have to easue on the

MOCK-AUCTION SWINDLERS .- The brood of robbers generally known as "Peter Funks" seems to be rapidly increasing, and some of the most conspicuous and valuable stores in the City have become their deas The manner in which they get such locations is as mean as any other operation in which they are engaged. They get an apparently respectable man to hire the store for some honest business, and then he makes an assign-ment to them of the lease, and forthwith the neighborhood is annoyed and disgraced by the presence and operations of the swindlers. We confess to a very small degree of sympathy for any person who is taken in at these shops, since they have been exposed so often and so thoroughly, that no one has a right to be ignorant of the rascals. A favorite scheme of theirs is to get adjoining stores, and run a humbug opposition; that greenhorns may be daped easier by the pretended competition. It seems a little strange, that while many other robbers do occasionally receive severe punishment, these Mock-Asction plunderers have no further trouble than to make a visit to the Chief of Police, refund their victim's money, take back the galvanized watch, and go forth to try the chest upon somebody cite. Once in a great while one of them receives a thorough flogging from some pugnaclous victim, but so far as law is concerned, they lie and steal with perfect impunity. We are told that a great number of the shops in the city are the property of one man, who has made an immense fortune in the business, and now keeps his country-seat, fast horses, pew and opera box, and cuts a distinguished figure in society. Perhaps his wealth and influence may account for the blindness of Justice when his brass watches and copper rings are flaunted in her face. But if there really is no law to punish or stop the rogues, there should be forthwith. At the roulett-table, a man has some chance, but in one of these shops he has no show at all.

AWFUL, AGAIN .- The pavement in Proedway above Duane at , which was repaired early in April, is sgain in a shocking condition, and calls for immediate attention. No time should be lost in putting the Russ pavement straight through from Reade to Caral-ta, tearing up the abomination inflicted by Perrine, and making at least one decently paved street in the

It will be seen by the above that (calculating tunnege) the Sylvia made the best time, and consequent ly won the cup. The Maria came in ahead, but was not entered for the race.

ANOTHER CROWD .- Neitheir rain or aught else seems to keep the people away from the Big Tent." Another most enthusiastic crowd came together last evening under this large canvas. Mr. R. R. Johnson opened the meeting with prayer; after which W. H. Van Wagner again addressed the meeting for an hour, in his able and masterly manner; and it was most evident that the interest to hear him increases each night. At his opening, and during his entire speech, and its close, there was the most enthusiastic applause. Mr. De Camp addressed the meeting in an earnest and effective manner, and was most warmly applanded throughout. There were other remarks of an interesting character. The singing was loudly applauded, and the meeting adjourned amid the most cheering auspices. In consequence of the rain in the afternoon, the number at the ladies' meeting was not large. There was, however, an organization formed, and the meeting was adjourned till Monday next, at 3 P. M.

ARREST FOR BURGLARY .- John Ber-ARREST FOR BURGLARY.—John Berrian, a colored boy, was arrested about 4 o'clock on the morning of the 1st inst, charged with having burglariously entered the saloon of Mesers. Coon & Hannan, in the rotunda of the Merchants' Exchange in Wail-st, who slept in the saloon, was awakened by a noise made by Berrian in effecting bis entrance and saw him come in at the window and proceed to the money drawer, which he searched, and then proceed to an adjoining room to make further researches. Mr. Barry sprang out of bed and secured the fellow, whom he handed over to the custody of Officer Watnoe, of the First Ward. No money was found upon him, although two or three deliars are missing Justice Bogart committed the accused to prison for examination.

The deceased bore the appearance of having been in the water for several months. The lower jaw and the frontal bone were entirely gone. He was dressed in a red flannel shirt, blue-striped over shirt, and drab fustian rest. The body was so much decomposed that its recognition would be impossible. A verdict of Death by Drowning was rendered by the Jury.

He had a short time previous attempted to jump out of a second stery window of the Museum. From papers found in his pockets, it is supposed that the unfortunate man was a resident of Utica, and had there been confined in the Lunatic Asylum. A bank-book was found of the neighborhood.

Betta—Walter R. Jones and others against the cargo materials, &c. of ship Richarod. The Richmond saids from Cold Spring, L. L. in July, 1286, on a whaling voyage, to the Pacific occan. In August, 1846, having on board nearly a full cargo of oil and whalebone, worth, it is said, about $30,000; she had started to return home, but during a fog went on some rocks at Behring's Straits, about half a mile from the shore, and could not be got oil. The weather, however, continued mild, and she did not go to pieces. Her cargo was roticed by the Captain to be publicly sold on board, on a certain day, being the day after that on which the notice wes given. The sale was attended by the Captains of the whale ships Elizabeth, Frith and Pansma, of Sar Harbor, and Junior, of New-Bedford, who bought, it is alleged, and cargo on behalf of their several owners, and brought it to the Usited States. The Captain, three matea, and crew (rearly thirty men) of the Richmond, were divided between the three vessels, and all, with the exception of the Captain, who died at the Sandwich Islands, returned home in them.

The Richmond was officered and manned, as usual with whaleships, on shares as to the proceeds of oil and waslebone taken on the voyage. The owners of the Richmond, to establish the rights of parties bring snit, claiming to be exitted

On the part of the defense, it is said, that the Richmond at the time was represented to be in imminent danger, and likely to go to pieces every minute; that the officers and crew had deserted her, and stated that the cargo would be crew had descried her, and stated that the cargo would be of no use to them; that the vessels in question were not full, and erch purchased a portion, as stated. The Richmond, it is said, was seen about a fortnight after abe was abandoned, but not since. The claim also includes some chromometers, compasses, &c.

The question is, whether under the circumstances, it was a positive purchase, or the vessels entitled, as alledged by the owners of the Richmond, but to compensation for receiving and bringing the property to the United States. Testimony was taken—to be continued.

THE EXILE MEAGHER .- The St. Patrick's Society of Brooklyn held an adjourned meeting mosth is 3,546; largest number in one day, 191; small- at Langstaff's Hotel in Myrtle-av, last evening, and organized by the appointment of S. B. Brophy, Esq., Chair man, and J. Downey, Secretary. Mr. Hennessy, from the Committee appointed to consult with the New-York Societies in regard to the arrangements concerning the intended demonstration to welcome Meagher. reported that no day had yet been decided upon, and would not be until after the meeting of the Common Council on Monday next, when the subject would be brought before that body. It was expected that the Corporation of New-York would take the lead in this matter. A report on the address of welcome was also submitted, the substance of which is that it would be inexpedient to present it until the anticipated grand demonstration had been made. They had come to the conclusion that it would be best to defer the presentation until after that event. These views being concurred in by the meeting, a resolution was offered directing the Chair to appoint a Committee of Tarce to agree upon some device or emblem to be worn by the St. Patrick's Society on the occasion of the approaching celebration, which was carried, and Messes, den, Hennessy and Doyle were appointed said Com-mittee. After instructing the several Committees to report at the next meeting, an adjournment took place to Wednesday evening, at the same place.

FERRY ACCOMMODATION. - The residents of South Brocklyn complain of the lack of sufficient accommodation on the South Ferry. Only one boat runs on the Hamilton-av. WILLIAMSBURGH ITEMS. REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH .- The General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, which has been in session in the church corner of Fourth and South Second-sts., since Wednesday morning last, has adjourned to Monday next, at 11 o'clock, when it will probably continue three or four days, to conclude its business. There are at present over 100 Clerical and Lay Delegates of the classis of this denomination, from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Rev. Gus-Rev. A. M. Mann, of Poughkeepsie, delivered the annual sermon on Wednesday evening. The Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions rendered his report yesterday, by which we learn that a greater number of new churches have been organized during the past than any previous year, and the spirit of Chris tian enterprise is much quickened in that denomination The Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Board' Rev. Dr. Will, furnished his report, which spoke encour, agingly of their mission in China, but referred to that in Borneo as almost hopeless. Messrs, Doty and Talmadge are laboring in the China Mission. The report further intimates that the present Synod may discontinue the connection between this Board and that of the American

He was adjudged guilty of contamacy by his classis. He appealed to the Particular Synod without success, and now appeals to this body. His case is represented by Judge Sanders of Schenectady. Rev. Drs. Vermilyea and Fisher appear in behalf of the Classis, and Rev. Dr. Bethune sets as Commissioner in behalf of the Particu' lar Syned. Thus far the proceedings of this body have been characterized by harmony, but this appeal case is expected to try sorely their patience.

INCENDIARY FIRE .- About 1 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke cut in the stable and carriage house of Mr. S. Tuttle, coal dealer, corner of South Seventh and Second-sts. The flames raged with such fury that in a short time the building, which was a frame one, was entirely consumed, together with every-thing it contained. The fire engines prevented the devouring element from communicating with the adjacent buildings, and kept it confined to the place where it originated. Two valuable horses were roasted alive, a carriage, harness and a loft full of hay were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $800; insured for $550. The fire was unquestionably the work of an incendiary, as a light had not been used in the premises for several days.

The body of a boy floated ashore at South Eleventh st. day before yesterday. It was supposed to be the body of John F. Schluter, a lad aged about eight years, who was drowned on Sunday, the 2d of May last, by falling from the ferry boat Olive Branch, while on her passage to Brooklyn. The father was accordingly notified, and identified the body as that of his Rev. Mr. Halloway, of Albany, RECEPTION OF MEAGHER .- An enthusiestic meeting filled Washington Hall to overflowing, last evening, to make preparations for the reception of Thos. Francis Meagher. Ex-Mayor Gilchrist presided, and A. A. Hardenburgh was chosen Secretary. A committee of five reported resolutions, which were adopted.-Speeches were made by A. A. Hardenburgh, R. An accident, fortunately unproductive of any serious consequences, took place on the Morris & Essex Railroad yesterday morning. The 12 o'clock freight train was ascending the hill, and when about a quarter of a mile from the depôt at Newark, the couplings were unfastened in order to change the position of the cars. The cars became unmanageable on account of the heavy grade, and descended the hill very rapidly, dashing into a locomotive that stood on the track, and scattering the coal with which they were loaded. Some damage was done by the cars being broken, but no person was injured; the men leaped from the cars, and all escaped safely, except one man who received a contusion on the head by falling on a stone.

THE FIRE.—The pyrotechnic establishment of Isaac Edge, which together with other buildings burned on Thursday afternoon, caught by one of the workmen scraping composition, in which powder and steel-fillings were mixed, out of a pot with the blade of a knife. During the fire, rockets went off, roman candles blazed, and other fire-works united with them in a patrictic display, significant of the proximity of our national anniversary. Ex-Mayor Gilchrist narrowly escaped JERSEY CITY ALDERMEN .- The Board has stood 8 Whig and 8 Opposition, through 208 unsuccessful ballotings for President. At its last meeting they voted to resign, and yesterday the eight Whig members filed their resignations in the City Clerk's Office. It is expected that the Mayor will call a special election, to create a new Board of Aldermen. The existing Charter of the City furnishes no means of escape from their difficulty. SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- During the gale ing was blown off, and in its fall struck a servant sid named Ellen Meagher on the head, fracturing her skull and prostrating her insensible to the ground. She was taken to the Hospital in Jersey City, and we learn that her recovery is doubtful. She has been in this country about a year

PHILADELPHIA SALES OF STOCKS-Friday,

FRIDAY, June 4-P. M. The feature of the fancy Stock market to-day was the fall in Nicaragua, which at the Second Board went to 30% ex-dividend, a decline of 3 P cent, from the closing price of yesterday. After the Second Board that price was bid. No reason was assigned for this decline. The other fancies were without material variation. Reading was firm, and Eric rather weak Zinc recovered somewhat from the decline of the last few days, and closed at 12%.
